ALEXANDRIA HAPPENINGS.

Dudley Pullinger and Aleck Braxton, colored Washington toughs, came to Alexandria yesterday evening in a half drunken condition, and while waiting for the 5:30 boat to Washington, began cursing and abusing the officials of the ferry company and the persons about the ferry house. Word was sent to the police station and Officer Anington came down and locked them up to answer a charge of disorderly conduct. Early resterday morning a well-diressed stranger was found on Upper Duke street, near Henry, insensible from drink, and taken to the police station. Last evening he had recovered sufficiently to give his name as J. D. Jennius, and Fredricksburg as his home. He claims to be a cousin of the late Admiral Lee, of the Confederate navy, and thinks the liquor he drank was dragged.

The missionary celebration in Trinity M. E. Church yesterday evening was attended by a congregation that filled every seat in the Sanday-school room of the church. Misses Mand Hutchins and Ella Lyles gave excellent recitations, and vocal made was rendered by Miss Margie O'Neal, Miss Alice Petty, and by the choir of the church. The interest of the occasion was greatly added to by a reunion of all the old teachers and pupils of the Sunday-school, and a large collection for missibnary purposes was raised.

A negro wife beater, named Cal Robinson, who lives on Washing ton street, near Jefferson, caused considerable excitement in his neighborhood Saturday night.

He filled up on bad whisky early in the evening and then went home and proceeded to thrash his better half. When she protested and yelled "murder" he declared he would leave the house and loading his bag and baggage into a wheelbarrow proceeded to the river, where he embarked in a row boat and started to pull for the northern shore. Officers Harrington and Akinson arrived on the scene at this juncture, and brought Robinson back to the shore and took him to the station.

Dr. Kent Compares the Past With the Present Civilization.

New Order of Kings Has Arisen Those Who Rule by Superior Ability and Cunning.

The People's Church closed yesterday the fourth year since it was established and the pastor, Rev. Alexander Kent, in his morning sermon told of its work and its purposes. He said that it differed from the churches usually spoken of as orthodox, in that its purpose is to make men happy here rather than to save them from eternal bell for an eternal heaven.

The People's Church has been mainly use fulinsowing theseeds of the truth, the central thought of the gospel of Christ that God is the Father and all men brothers.

"No form of civilization has existed," he said, "that does not imply an antagonism of interest between races and between classes. The solidity of humanity, the absolute impossibility of any part of the human race really and permanently lifting itself up by really and permanently lifting itself up by oppressing and degrading another is a conviction that has never found embodiment in any social structure.

"The founders of the American Republic came closer to this conception than any others that ever attempted the building of a nation. The great principles upon which they based the right and duty of self-government were principles rooted in this fact.

"But they were not wise enough to see that in breaking away from the old political institutions and ideas they were inlitical institutions and ideas they were inaugurating a revolution that could only be successful as it reshaped and remolded all institutions as well.

"They did not see that in importing into this country the industrial ideas and institutions that had grown up under the old notions of caste and class they were laying the foundation of a tyramy more powerful and ruthless than that from which they were seeking to escape.

"The doctrine that might makes right discarded in politics, was honored and glorified in industry. The people emanci-pated themselves from the rule of political oppressors only to fall into the hands of inoppressors only to fail into the hands of in-destrial tyratus.

"Under the spar and stimules of the prizes offered to enterprise and industry in the field of competitive effort the strong and canning have been forging to the front, getting control of industries and finances, and, in utter disregard of the general weal, enriching themselves at the expense of the enriching themselves at the expense of the

It has a divine right to control in the affairs of the nation, but only for the common good. Our rulers should be pre-common good. Our rulers should be pre-eminently our servants."

He admitted the inability of the People's Church, in common with allother churches, to put into full practice the principles announced, but hoped they had glimpses of the higher grounds and were approach-ing them.

He closed by calling attention to the larger from the greed of the tobacco manufacturers. "No other evil here," said he, "is comparable in its ravages upon the virility of our young men to the cigarette habit. The maintacturers of the cigarette are well aware of this fact."
